

Honourable Vice-Chancellor's Meeting with UGC Chairman

Honourable Vice-Chancellor of Dravidian University Prof. Sudhakar Yedla has visited Delhi during 27-28th June 2019 to meet UGC Chairman Prof. D.P. Singh, Secretary of Higher Education, Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India Shri R. Subrahmanyam and the Chairman of ICSSR, Prof. Braj Bihari Kumar. He has explained them about the University and its unique features and requested their support and cooperation in the development of the university.

Pending issues with the Distance Education Bureau (DEB) such as according permission for Distance Education Courses were discussed with the Chairman, UGC and the concerned Joint Secretary in DEB and got their assurance in sorting them out in a systematic procedure.

Secretary, Higher Education, MHRD has assured that DUs' request for support under RUSA would be considered within the existing framework of RUSA. Prof. Kumar, Chairman of ICSSR informed that ICSSR has in principle decided to include languages in their functional domain and was very keen to join hands with Dravidian University in this endeavor.
